TEXAS HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

House Membership

Representative Bill Keffer

Biographical Information

Bill Keffer was elected to the Texas State House of Representatives from District 107 in November of 2002. He is currently a member of the House Insurance, Energy Resources, and Rules and Regulations Committees.

On the Insurance Committee, Bill will be reviewing important issues regarding the regulation of homeowners insurance and the medical liability insurance markets. Due to the dramatic increases on insurance premiums, the 78th legislative session will be dedicated to investigating and addressing these rate hikes by closely examining the industry.

As a member of the Energy Resources Committee, Bill will be studying and reviewing issues dealing with natural gas prices, interstate and intrastate pipeline statutes in Texas, and reviewing other issues affecting the energy industry in Texas.

Bill is the managing partner in the Dallas law firm of Miller & Keffer, specializing in environmental litigation across the United States. Since 1984 he has worked with the Dallas law firm Vial, Hamilton, Koch, & Knox, ARCO Oil and Gas Company, and the Dallas law firm Gardere & Wynne. He has been managing partner of Miller & Keffer since October of 2001. He graduated from Southern Methodist University in 1981 and earned his J.D. from the University of Texas in 1984.

Bill is a current board member and past president of the Dallas Chapter of the Federalist Society, is a former chairman of his neighborhood crime watch, and is the president of his homeowners association. Bill has also contributed editorials to many publications, including the Dallas Morning News and the Lone Star Report, and was a monthly columnist for the Lake Highlands Advocate.

Born in McCamey, Texas on September 15, 1958, Bill has lived in Dallas since 1961 and graduated from the Greenhill School in 1977. He married his wife "Liz" in 1985. They currently reside in the Lake Highlands area of Dallas and have two sons and a daughter.
